Taking Stock of Union Square

Where have we been, Where are we now, Where are we going

This month's USQ CAC meeting has no scheduled outside speakers or inside presenters on specific topics. Instead, we wanted to push the re-set button to make sure we are aligned with each other, with the City and with the broader community and its goals for Union Square. The Fall of 2015 needs to be a time of constructive problem solving and real progress.
